CHICAGO, July 4.—The Fourth of July was almost a mockery in Chicago. The day was made the occasion for a big bonfire, but it was not in the way of celebration. As if in defiance of the calling out of the Federal troops came an act of incendiarism against the allied railroads. Almost the first news of the National holiday was a report of the firing of a number of cars at West Pullman in the Blue Island district of the Rock Island road.

The blaze was started just far enough away to be out of quick reach of the detachment of Federal troops sent to that point last night from Fort Sheridan. The reports placed the number of cars burned at nearly a dozen, all freight.

At the stock yards and at the Grand Crossing, where the other divisions of the Fort Sheridan garrison had been sent, the strikers seemed to have adopted a policy similar to that in vogue at Blue Island. They appeared to be anxious to keep out of danger of a collision with Uncle Sam's men, and devoted themselves to quarters where things were less than the buzzard order.

A Santa Fe Train In.

A few passenger trains arrived at the depots in the city and were unhooked. One of these was a Santa Fe train at the Dearborn Station at 10 A. M., with two Pullmans attached. It entered the station with more armed deputies than passengers aboard.

Col. R. E. Crofton, commander of the Fort Sheridan regulars, made his headquarters at the Grand Pacific Hotel today and was in constant communication with the troops at the stock yards, Grand Crossing and Blue Island. All the railroads reported that they were running some trains, and railroad officials generally regarded the situation as encouraging.

Stock-Yard Strikers Listless.

The company of United States troops assigned to the stock yards was encamped at Dexter Park today, and the soldiers stood around listlessly, with no apparent intention to create a disturbance of any kind.

The fifteen cars of beef made up in a train yesterday were started East from Elkhorn and Halsted street at 9 A. M., no resistance being offered or the port of the strikers. No further business at the yards will be attempted after 12 o'clock to-night.

A MINER SHOT DEAD, STABBED BY A WOMAN

Revival of the Cœur d'Alene War on Non-Unionists.

Superintendent, Foreman and Two Miners at the Gem Captured.

Posse of Citizens and Deputies in Pursuit of the Mob.

(By Associated Press.)

WALLACE, Idaho, July 4.—Seventy-five masked men from Burke entered the town of Gem and seized and bound Sups. O'Neill and Foreman Summers, known as "Dempsey," Maggie Davis, wife on South Main street, between Blodner and Houston streets, shortly before 12 o'clock this morning.

The mob started to the blacksmith shop, where John Nels was working. Nels saw them coming and sprang through the back window. The mob fled, killing him instantly, and his body rolled down the hill.

The leaders of the mob held a short consultation, and gave the signal to close around the prisoners, who were then marched over the range towards Montana.

When word reached Wallace, many deputies were sworn in, and citizens joined their organization. They are now in pursuit of the mob.

The trouble is a revival of the fight of 1882. Union men have made frequent threats to drive all non-union miners out, and a few weeks ago lived June 17, as the date non-union men must leave the Cœur d'Alene region.

STEIN IS NOT WORRIED.

He Says He Can Prove He Did Not Commit Perjury.

Lawyer Severance, whom Myer J. Stein mentions in connection with his arrest for perjury, is told in another place, is at one of the many watering places, at least temporarily, in the vicinity of the Gem.

The trouble is a revival of the fight of 1882. Union men have made frequent threats to drive all non-union miners out, and a few weeks ago lived June 17, as the date non-union men must leave the Cœur d'Alene region.

George Washington Gibbons, a handsome colored waiter twenty-three years old of the West Forty-third street, was stabbed twice in the back and once in the left thigh by a young colored woman, known as "Dempsey," Maggie Davis, wife on South Main street, between Blodner and Houston streets, shortly before 12 o'clock this morning.

The young colored man was taken to an ambulance to Bellview Hospital in a very critical condition. He was a passenger on a large of slender condition. The Davis woman was locked up in the South Main street station house, and will be arraigned in Jefferson Marshal Police Court tomorrow morning.

The only cause assigned for the stabbing is jealousy. Gibbons had been two hours over the distribution of fruit, which opened in front of a fruit Fifth Avenue store.

An avenger was seen in the opening event, which Nick was a slight favorite.

Walcott showed play way into the stretch. There he was joined by the favorite, and after a racing finish the Front Duke and Japanese were favorite for the second. Persistence and Dash were third.

Murphy, who rode the former was badly injured. Green escaped with a shaking up.
